Receiver Urges the Railroad Managers to Be Out-Spoken.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25 .- "Impractical regulatory policies" of federal and state agencies and the failure of the public to see it that "the regulating authorities give railroads foir treatment," were pointed to as the principal causes of railroad receiverships in a statement issued here today by C. E. Schuff, president and preciver of the Schaff, president and receiver of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad.

The statement, which was in answer to a statement of Henry N. Pope, president of the Farmers' Union of Texas, calling on the men who actually manage railroads to "speak out" as to the responsibility for railroad receiverships in the southwest, follows, in part.
